

Monastic Retreat - Mon, June 11th - Saturday, June 16th
at San José Monasterio (St. Joseph's Monastery) in Mexico

Please sign-up on or before Saturday, May 12th.

The Benedictine Monastery of St. Joseph will be hosting a monastic retreat at their monastery in Mexico from June 11th - June 16th 2018 for those interested in a Benedictine or priestly vocation.

Who: Men over the age of 16 interested in a Benedictine or priestly vocation

What: Monastic Retreat (note: this is NOT an Ignatian Retreat). A monastic retreat is an opportunity to live 5 days as a monk (following the schedule of a monk) while at the same time having conferences and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament every day.

Where: Zaragoza 27; Colonia Centro; Polotitlan; Estado de Mexico; Codigo Postal 54200
(Closest major airport is Mexico City (Monastery will provide transportation))

Priest: Fr. Raphael

Daily Traditional Catholic Mass will be offered.

Arrival: Please plan on arriving in Mexico City by 3:00 PM on Sunday, June 10th to be able to attend Sunday Mass the night before the retreat.

Please "sign-up" for the retreat by sending an e-mail to: benedictinosdesanjose@gmail.com with the following information on or before Saturday, May 12th.

1. Name of retreatant:
2. Age:
3. Last retreat / type of retreat (approx. time is ok):
4. Contact phone # and e-mail address:
5. Home address/phone:
6. When/Where will you be arriving:

Suggested donation: $25 per day to help defray the cost of meal expenses (no obligation if you cannot afford it). Any additional donations would be appreciated to help the monastery.

Additional information regarding the retreat will be sent later in May for those who sign-up for the retreat. Please direct any questions to Fr. Raphael:
benedictinosdesanjose@gmail.com